o'clock, and members are entitled to two complimentary guest tickets, besides their own admission cards. These cards can be procured from the janitress at the club after Monday until the time of the lecture.

Mr. John H. Powell, who gave a beautiful piano recital at the Woman's Club last Monday, played again for a number of music lovers on Thursday evening, delighting his audience on both occasions.

He impressed his hearers by the strength and delicacy of his touch, its clearness and by his great magnetism. His friends who have watched the development of his talent under the careful instruction of Professor Hoch, are much impressed by his improvement since he has been studying with the renowned Leschetizky, of Vienna, who is doubtless the foremost instructor of the day, and with whom Mr. Powell expects to renew his studies shortly.

Mr. Powell was heard to special advantage in the Chopin and Mendelssohn-Liszt numbers. He played several selections from Leschetizky, which were warmly applauded.

Colonial Dames' Calendar.

The Colonial Dames of Virginia have gotten a beautiful calendar entitled "Colonial Virginia, 1607-1621." The idea of the calendar is to prove that Virginia had an existing government before the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth.

The handsome covers will show the buff and blue colonial colors. The upper will bear the impress of the old colonial seal, and the motto: "En Dat Virginia Quintam."

The illustrations will be very fine and exquisite, showing pictures of Queen Elizabeth, Sir Walter Raleigh, Captain John Smith, the gentle Indian Princess, Pocahontas, the early colonial Governors, Jamestown, with the overhanging branches of its trees touching the rippling water of the river, and the first rude church, with its sheltering sail fastened to the trees.

Each page will have two illustrations, and spaces with dates, opposite for the jotting down of engagements.

The pages will be bordered with etchings of tobacco, the Jamestown weed, Indian corn and other Virginia productions. The work in etching and drawing has much of it been done by Mrs. M. Dashiell. The calendar will be published by L. Dietz and Company, and will be at once put on sale at all the principal bookstores.

Mrs. Mary I. Forrest announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Bessie Taylor, to Mr. Percy H. Lash, of Norfolk. The marriage will take place in November.

The Board of Governors of the Deep Run Hunt Club have arranged for an informal reception to be held at the pretty Deep Run Hunt Club house on Thursday afternoon, October 14th, at 4 o'clock. Besides the members of the club it is expected that a large number of visitors and exhibitors attending the Horse Show will be present.

Refreshments will be served at the club house, and the afternoon promises to be a most enjoyable one. The club will shortly resume its hunts. The annual meeting of the club will be held at the Westmoreland Club on the night of October 20th, when, among other matters, a new president of the club will be elected. The club is in good condition and applications for membership are being received daily.

The marriage of Miss Bright Gunn to Mr. Eddy M. Cunningham, of Winchester, Va., took place Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Buchanan officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. A. M. Gunn and granddaughter of the late James F. Gunn. She is one of Richmond's beautiful girls.

Mr. Cunningham is in the insurance business, and is a very popular young man.

The invitations issued by Mrs. Eleanor L. Washington Howard for the marriage of her daughter, Sarah Smith, to Mr. Hugh Milton Caldwell, on October 21st, at Christ Church, Alexandria, Va., have been recalled, owing to the recent death in Mr. Caldwell's family.

The ceremony will be performed in the presence of the immediate family only.

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Pickett Camp will hold their fall meeting at Pickett Camp Hall, on Seventh Street, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Every member is urgently requested to be present. Business of importance.

The first fall meeting of the Sheltering Arms Hospital will be held at the hospital to-morrow at noon. As this is the first meeting of the year, all members are earnestly requested to attend promptly.

The Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold a very important meeting next Wednesday at 4:30 P. M. in Lee Camp Hall.

Final arrangements will be made for the Norfolk convention, and delegates will be elected to the general meeting to take place in Charleston, S. C., during November.

MISS SOPHY WHITE.

One of the most charming of the young Horse Show chateaux, Miss White enters upon her debutante winter in Richmond as one of the most admired and popular girls in the city.

At the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs last summer she was the center of a coterie of devoted attendants, and during frequent visits to Baltimore, Washington and New York, she has attracted attention on all sides.

With sunny brown hair and eyes to match, Miss White is remarkable for her lovely coloring, her charming smile and her gay insouciance of manner. She is the daughter of Dr. Joseph A. White, of No. 200 East Franklin Street, a leading specialist in Richmond and eminent professionally outside of it.

Miss White has recently been appointed maid of honor to Miss Agnes Drewry for the Confederate reunion at Newport News, October 28th-30th.

Richmond Chapter, who have not already paid their dues, are earnestly requested by the president to send the money to Mrs. Charles E. Bolling before Wednesday. The meeting then should be attended by every one who can possibly come.

In acknowledgement of a graceful act of courtesy on Miss Adelaide Thurston's part, which prompted the placing of an honorary box for last evening at the disposal of the Richmond Chapter president, the box was filled by the following Daughters of the Confederacy: Mrs. Walter Christian, vice-president, and Mrs.

Charles E. Bolling, the treasurer of the chapter; Miss Elizabeth Townes, Miss Nellie Boykin, Miss Nora Leary, Miss Annie Gray and Miss Ethel Sheburne.

The Daughters expressed their appreciation by sending Miss Thurston some lovely flowers.

In Governor and Mrs. A. J. Montague's box last evening were the Governor and his wife, Miss Irene Martin Fitzgerald, Mr. R. L. Montague and several others.

The following appointments of sponsors and maids of honor have been made by General James Macgill, Grand Commander of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans, Department of Virginia, for the sixteenth annual meeting of the Grand Camp, to be held at Newport News, Va., on the 28th, 29th and 30th of October, 1903:

For the State at large: Sponsor—Miss Virginia Holmes Greener, Chilhowie, Va. Maid of honor—Miss Mary Paul Roper, Petersburg, Va.

Second District: Sponsor—Miss Mary Clarence Garnett, Newport News, Va. Maid of honor—Miss Minnie Boykin, Smithfield, Va.

Fourth District: Sponsor—Miss Hall Davis, Petersburg, Va. Maid of honor—Miss Patti Hanson, Jorgensen, Va.

Fifth District: Sponsor—Miss Annie Carter, Berkeley, Virginia. Maid of honor—Miss Nellie Martin, Lynchburg, Va.

Sixth District: Sponsor—Mrs. Rosa Roberts Evans, Salem, Va.

Seventh District: Sponsor—Mrs. Louise Fletcher Green, Gaines Cross Roads, Va. Maid of honor—Miss Mary Richard, Strasburg, Va.

Ninth District: Sponsor—Miss Rosalie M. Williams, Wytheville, Va. Maid of honor—Mrs. Lucy P. Levell, Wytheville, Va.

Tenth District: Sponsor—Miss Nannie Brooke Scott, Staunton, Va. Maid of honor—Miss Minnie S. Morton, Staunton, Va.

The following new camps have been chartered:

No. 112—E. J. Perkins Camp, C. V., White Top, Grayson county, Va.; commander, W. J. Cornett; adjutant, J. F. Russell; postoffice, White Top, Va.

No. 113—A. M. Davis Camp, C. V., Baywood, Grayson county, Va.; commander, Haywood Blevins; adjutant, H. W. Fields; postoffice, Baywood, Va.

On Wednesday, the 11th of November, the ladies of the Retreat Board will give a grand excursion to the world-famed caverns of Luray. This will fill a long-felt want, as there has not been an excursion from Richmond to Luray for years, and hundreds are awaiting the opportunity to visit Shenandoah Valley, feast their eyes on its many natural beauties and gather instruction from its mighty wonders.

Personal Mention.

Miss Virginia Holmes Greener, her mother, Mrs. Greener, and Mrs. Merrell, will be at No. 215 East Franklin Street for Horse Show week.

Mrs. Richard Parker Crenshaw, of Martinsburg, W. Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. Oppenheimer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Walters and Messrs. Poynton and Ned Coles, of Albemarle, will visit Mrs. Ida W. Ellerson, of No. 318 East Grace Street, during Horse Show week.

Mrs. Bird and Miss Bird, of Baltimore, who have been guests during the past week at the Executive Mansion, left yesterday for home.

Miss Moore and Miss M. E. Moore, who spent the summer at the Warm and Hot Springs, and who, since leaving the resorts, have been for several weeks at the University of Virginia, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hopkins and Miss Forbes, of "Guthrie Hall," Albemarle county, are at the Jefferson.

Mrs. Julian Price, of Greensboro, N. C., and Mrs. M. E. Gee, of Meherrin, Va., will be the guests of Mrs. J. P. Stringer, of No. 619 North Eighth Street, during Horse Show week.

Mr. Hiram T. Gates and family have moved, and are located at No. 808 West Grace Street for the winter.

Messrs. M. Lee and R. O. Fergusson of the firm of Fergusson Brothers will return to-day from New York, where they have been for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lafferty are spending part of their honeymoon with the bride's parents, on West Clay Street, where they were tendered a reception last Wednesday night. They received many handsome presents. They will leave for Atlantic City, their future home, in a few days.

Mrs. Frank T. Fleming and Miss Elizabeth Fleming, of Jacksonville, Fla., are guests of Miss Nannie Jones at No. 763 East Franklin Street.

Mrs. Charles J. Loth, accompanied by her sons, Clarence and Leslie, left Friday for New York. They will be away for some time, and while there will Miss Mattie V. Morton, who has been visiting Mrs. James Grigs, left yesterday for her home at Clover, Va.

Mrs. J. B. Page, of No. 12 South Plum Street, left Thursday for the Lynchburg Horse Show. While there Mrs. Page will sell her property and reinvest in Richmond.

Mrs. W. Scott Burton is now visiting friends in New York, and before returning home will spend some time in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Harvis L. Davis and Miss Elvira B. Davis have returned to the city after a delightful visit to Mrs. Charles J. Fallon, of Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. John A. Broadus and Mrs. A. T. Robertson, of Louisville, Ky., are visiting Mrs. S. C. Mitchell at Richmond College.

Mr. James Grigs and family have removed to No. 1109 West Avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Blay Oshausen are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eppa Hunton, and will probably remain until after the Horse Show.

A brilliant entertainment was given yesterday from 5 to 7 by Miss Ruby Bodeker, in honor of Mrs. Louis Merriam, of Washington, D. C., her Horse Show guest.

The house was elaborately decorated and an orchestra played during reception hours. Receiving with Miss Bodeker and Mrs. Merriam were: Mrs. Preston Le Roy Roper, of Petersburg; Mrs. Harry Parker, of Hampton, Va., and Miss Pearl Bodeker.

CARNIVAL TO-MORROW

The Big Show to Open at Broad-Street Park.

LOOP-THE-LOOP FEATURE

The great Fall Carnival opens at the Base-Ball Park, West Broad Street, to-morrow evening, with the big Gaskill-Mundy-Levitt carnival aggregation of high-class shows and free acts as the amusement feature. Foremost among the attractions will be the great Loop the Loop, which Diavolo, the Kimette demon, circles on a bicycle, defying gravitation by centrifugal force, and presenting an act which for daring and skill stands pre-eminent and alone in the amusement world.

The great aggregation will arrive here on a special train of twenty-three cars this evening, and the shows will be at once unloading at the Broad Street crossing and taken to the Base-Ball Park.

There are twenty-five shows in all and seven free acts. Three hundred people of every land and clime and one hundred trained wild animals form part of the freight of the long show train.

The shows include the Roman Stadium and Streets of India, with the exhibitions of skill and strength, as well as human daring; the Trained Wild Animal Arena, where the lions, tigers, leopards, panthers, bears and wolves perform, and where in the steel barred arena the trainers take their lives in their hands and put their savage charges through interesting performances; the Crystal Maze, where you can get lost amid the mirrors; the funny House Upside Down, in which you are stood on your head without knowing it; the Blake Dog, Pony and Monkey Circus, with fifty-nine trained animals; the Trip to Melodia, with the marvelous Willards, in which the visitor is transported to the land of mystic music in an artistic manner; Down in Dixie, where Southern darlings sing their songs of jubilee and dance the jig of the Southern plantations; the quality Chinese Theatre, the only one of its kind in America; the Girl From Up There, the electrical sensation of the late Pan-American Exposition; the Streets of Cairo, with the sacred camels and donkeys of Egypt, the gun-spinners and sword-fighters, the Albanian mountains, the magicians of Arabia and Ceylon and the fakirs of the East Indies; the Oriental Theatre, with the dancing girls, including La Belle Rosa and Fredd; Kinderdrome Aiming Pictures, the Ferris Wheel, and many others.

For a week past a large force of carpenters has been at work erecting the stages and platforms for the numerous shows and free acts, and a small army of electricians have been busy installing the electric light display, which will be the most brilliant ever seen in this city.

The Gaskill-Mundy-Levitt aggregation is the best on the road.
